Slow Wine World Tour

WEINKARTE

München, 22nd January 2024

Slow Wine

The annual Slow Wine guide, published by Slow Food Editore, adopts a new approach to wine criticism: not only reviews and organoleptic descriptions but a real wine storytelling where the deep and direct knowledge of the wine companies is the one and only protagonist. We visit all cellars and take into consideration the wine quality, adherence to terroir, value for money and give greater weight and importance to the estates' production methods. Through the guide and international tour we support and promote small-scale Italian winemakers who are using traditional techniques, working with respect for the environment, and safeguarding the incredible biodiversity of grape varieties that are part of Italy's heritage.

I Vini del Piemonte

I Vini del Piemonte is a consortium of promotion that includes some 200 Piedmontese wine companies. The aim is to promote and communicate in the best way possible the richness and peculiarities of the different Piedmontese wine designations. Every year, the consortium organizes more than 30 promotional initiatives in different countries around the world.

Meaning of the partnership between Slow Wine and I Vini del Piemonte

Slow Food started out almost thirty years ago in Piedmont. Despite the exponential growth of members worldwide and the huge spread of Carlo Petrini's ideas, its headquartes remain in Bra, a small Piedmontese town. Its heart still beats in Piedmont and the first events were centred on the wine of this region. Slow Food believes that wine, just as with food, must be "good, clean, and fair"– not just good. Wine is an agricultural product, just like any of the foods we eat, and has an impact on the lives of the people who produce it, as well as on the environment – through pesticides, herbicides and excessive water consumption which are all commonplace in conventional wine production.

We are a family of winemakers and have been living and producing wine in the Marche region for four generations.

Le Canà winery boasts a history spanning over a hundred years and tells of generations of winemakers and proves how it is still possible to pass on the love for the land and the territory.

The wines encapsulate the Marche region in a simple and natural way: a place far from the main roads, where nature, silence and traces of a not so distant past make it a special world apart.

This is a land that we have been preserving with organic farming since 2006, enabling us to transfer its soul made of strength and wealth, to wine.

We are in Moasca, halfway between Nizza Monferrato and Canelli. A small village that few people know about, but which is full of history and winemaking vocation.

Many companies have made wine here in the past, but focused exclusively on the sale of bulk wine in demijohns to private customers.
My idea of making wine was different from the beginning.

Between the rows we work with organic fertilizers and green manures every other year and we take care to carry out only the strictly necessary treatments, respecting the land and us who live and breathe here.

Tenuta il Nespolo is a small winery that produces artisanal and territorial wines from typical Monferrato grapes.
Few dogmas and fixed schemes, we make wine using knowledge in the vineyard and cellar, without overdoing anywhere. 90% is done in the vineyard, for the rest we work to not ruin what the vineyard has given us.

We are located in the Alta Murgia Plateau area, the stone heart of the Apulia region. This region features a great succession of rocky ridges, rolling hills, karst cavities, dolines and sinkholes, steep escarpments, woods and vast natural pastures, and bears witness to the perpetual mingling of Nature and man. Murgia is an area rich in karst formations, as well as in more recent rock formations, such as tuffs and clay bags, sands, earthy and pebbly alluvial deposits, dating back to the last geological era which mixed with humus and minerals to make a great terroir.

We cultivate our vineyards with the respect of environmental biodiversity: it is a philosophy that has accompanied us from day one and earned us Organic Certification in 1996 one of the first awarded to wineries in the Apulia region. Since then, we have been faithful to our dual mission: to safeguard the health of consumers by producing healthier wines, and of our land, by rediscovering and enhancing native grape varieties.

Brigaldara is the wine chest that contains the different souls of Valpolicella. Brigaldara is a common overview, an anthology of Valpolicella - enriched by different perspectives, stories, experiences, generations.

A thousand years of history, one hundred and twenty hectares of property - forty-seven of which are planted with vines - distributed in three different areas of Verona: Valpolicella Classica, Valpantena and Eastern Valpolicella. A historic family, the Cesari, that has owned the villa and the surrounding land since 1928, who is committed to the enhancement of a rich and heterogeneous property.

A team of young winemakers and agronomists dedicated to the study and customization of each intervention in the vineyard, to enhance the terroirs and microterroirs that make up the different souls of the wines that are here produced.

The Bertani brothers, Giovanni and Guglielmo, thanks to a deep respect for the Veronese wine history and the enhancement of the various indigenous varieties and local terroir, are continuing the avant-garde project dedicated to quality production in the footsteps of their father Gaetano Bertani. The production philosophy, inherited from Gaetano Bertani, is linked to meticulous and respectful work in the vineyards and to the pioneering application of innovative practices, including the high-density and low-yield Guyot method applied to indigenous clones in the historic cellars of the estate since 1883.

With their ongoing research, they are continuing to refine the grape drying technique to enhance the aromatic complexity of the native Veronese varieties, not just the intensity and concentration.The wines obtained are less sugary and more elegant, a direct evolution of the precursor of Amarone Classico, the “Recioto Tipo Secco”.

Vigneto Due Santi was founded in 1965 by the Zonta family. In the late 1950's they managed to acquire land in Bassano del Grappa that was particularly suited to vineyards and they built a beautiful wine estate carved out of the hillside where the winemaking process still takes place today. In 1968, after almost a decade after the planting of the first vines and after 24 months of aging in oak barrels, the first bottle of Vigneto Due Santi wine was produced.

The passion for wine that was cultivated in the Zonta household took hold in two young men of the second generation, Stefano and Adriano. Aiming to find harmony between man and the land, they succeeded in rapidly turning Vigneto Due Santi into one of the top producers of Cabernet and Merlot in all of northeast Italy.

Asolo Prosecco starts in the hills of eighteen municipalities that encircle the ancient village of Asolo. This is an enchanted place rich in art and history, and a candidate for UNESCO World Heritage recognition.

The entire Asolo Prosecco area lies within the Province of Treviso at the foot of Monte Grappa, on the high hills west of the Piave River close to the Dolomites and the Montello hill. Heroic viticulture is practised here. Glera, a grape native to Treviso, is cultivated in the crus. Together with Glera, other historical local grape varieties go into Asolo Prosecco: Bianchetta Trevigiana, Verdiso, Perera and Glera lunga.

Asolo Prosecco obtained the DOCG status in June 2009 and was the first Prosecco designation to also include the Extra Brut type.
